Miami, Fla. — The Florida Department of Health in Miami-Dade County is encouraging Floridians to use Tobacco Free Florida's free tools and services to make a plan to quit smoking for the American Cancer Society's 44th annual Great American Smokeout on Thursday, November 21.

Tobacco Free Florida aims to educate Floridians on the various free quit resources available in the state and support them through the process – on the Great American Smokeout and year-round.

In Miami-Dade, the Tobacco Prevention and Control Program working with local employers across Miami-Dade County to support their employees to quit smoking for the Great American Smokeout. Local employers are raising awareness about the dangers of smoking and the many effective resources available to help smokers successfully quit with education campaigns and by hosting observance events at their respective worksites.

Most adult cigarette smokers say that they want to quit,¹ but quitting smoking is hard and may require several attempts.^{2,3} Creating a quit plan and using proven-effective resources, like Tobacco Free Florida, can significantly increase your chances of quitting smoking for good.^{4,5,6} Smokers can and do quit smoking. In fact, today there are more former smokers than current smokers in Florida.⁷

Tobacco Free Florida's Quit Your Way program offers free Phone Quit, Group Quit and Web Quit services, in addition to individual tools like texting support, a Quit Guide and helpful emails. Free nicotine replacement therapy – nicotine patches, gum or lozenges – are available to tobacco users who are 18 or older, if medically appropriate.
